Express Employment Professionals Presents:
A complimentary presentation focusing on
"Networking Efficiently"

Making connections and building relationships can be exhausting. Learn how to improve and accelerate your professional networking.

On Thursday, February 9th, Express Employment Professionals will host a presentation featuring Robby Slaughter. Join us to learn more about the right way to network to get the most out of your time!

About the Speaker:

Robby Slaughter is a workflow and productivity expert. His focus is helping organizations and individuals to become more efficient, more effective and more satisfied at work. Robby is a regular contributor in several regional magazines and has been interviewed by national publications such as the Wall Street Journal. He is also the author of a new book titled "Failure: The Secret to Success."
